

VIVA World Cup 2006™, finally born !

VIVA World Cup™ was born in pain after a failed attempt in 2005. After a programmed then moved to North Cyprus Hyères les Palmiers in the south of France nomination. The draw of The Hague a few months earlier, six teams were involved :

Lapland, Monaco, Occitania, West Papua, Rom, and Southern Cameroons.

But like the song of Genesis, the english tabloids headlined "And then there were Three." A closely packages registered Roma (financial reasons) and West Papua few days before the competition, The Southern Cameroons did not attend the field day kickoff.

Finally remained a single Group 3 teams whose 2 best rankend will play again in the Final. The competition is only one summarizing crucial match between Monaco and Monaco won by Occitania. The team Lapland (Sami) had monopolized for the best used players (including 8 evolving in clubs competing in the Champions League UEFA), available in November.

However, no one would have predicted such a difference in levels between Lapland and the other 2 teams. The coach Sami jubilant such a level of play of his players.

The Balance sheet is heavy toll with 48 goals in 4 matches. An average of 12 goals per game. But the VIVA World Cup 2006 [™] had stood. With all the extras and thanks especially to the family COSTA (Peire, Hélène and Florent) who have struggled with the NFB to find the available infrastructure in time. The conclusion was drawn herself with a Banquet 3rd Halftime explosive. Away tension all week, all signs clearly announced a sequel this VIVA World Cup[™].
